To be closer to believing
To be just a breath away
On the death of inspiration,
I'd buy back yesterday.
But there's no crueler illusion,
There's no sharper coin to pay.
As I reach out,
It slips away —

"... The more I live, the more I learn
The more I learn, the more I realize the less I know
Each step I take, each page I turn, each mile I travel
Only means the more I have to go.
What's wrong with wanting more? If you can fly then soar.
With all there is, why settle for just a piece of sky?"

— Allen & Marilyn Bergman

"What a time it was and what a time it was, it was:
A time of innocence, a time of confidences.
Long ago it must be — I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories; they're all that's left you."

Tomorrow is a dream that leads me onward ... tomorrow is a path I've yet to choose it's a chance I've yet to take,
 a friend I've yet to make,
 it's all the talent I have yet to use.
 Tomorrow is a dream that leads me onward,
 always just a step ahead of me ...
 it's the joy I've yet to know,
 the love I've yet to show,
 for it's the person I have yet to be.

Whew! Thank you Lord. Thanks Mom, Dad, Sandy Sam, Vanessa. There are too many memories to write down. Thus, I don't write any for fear that I may leave some out and lessen the intimacy shared by me and those involved. I could not possibly convey their meanings to me to you by mere dot dots. Love and "thank you" to you all for making my "unique" experience here at Sweet Briar a pleasurable one. God bless. Knock em dead, UNITY! I love you.

All the days I thought could never end are gone
All the days that seem so far away have passed
So many happy moments
are now happy memories
But . . . I still have tomorrows filled with the hope of things to come
and although I watch the sunset now,
I know it will rise again

It is easy to be pleasant
When life flows by like a song
But the man worthwhile is one who will smile,
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble,
and it always comes with the years
And the smile that is worth the praises of earth
Is the smile that shines through tears.

"Is it possible to think of someone in the past? As long as we loved each other, we never allowed the meanest of our instants, the smallest grief, to be detached and forgotten, left behind. Sounds, smells, nuances of light, even the thoughts we never told each other; we have carried them all away and they remained alive; even now they have the power to give us joy and pain. Not a memory; an implacable torrid love, without shadow, without escape, without shelter."

Well we know where we're goin'
But we don't know where we've been
And we know what we're knowin'
But we can't say what we've seen
And we're not little children
And we know what we want
And the future is certain
Give us time to work it out

If there wasn't a thing called time, the passing of time in the world we live in, we might be able to count on things staying the same, but time lives in the world with us and has a big broom and is sweeping us out of the way, whether we face it or not.

"This is the fun part!"

The 1986 Briar Patch was published by Hunter Publishing Company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, with 750 copies of 208 pages. The paper finish is gloss, the endsheets black, and the cover 120 hardback, silk-screened on Lexotone. The copy is 36, 30, 24, 12, 10, and 8 point done in Korning. The pictures were taken by Andre Studio of Lexington, Virginia, and by the students of Sweet Briar College.

Being of unsound mind and no direction at all, I would like to thank the following people for their time, effort, and unending patience: Jennifer Carter, Mary Jo Biscardi, Julie Speight, Corinne Neale, Nancy Buckey, Jennifer Frost, Brooke Haw, Melinda Sher, Scott Bryant, Mike Collingsworth, Missy Duggins, and Charlie Garrison.

There has been a lot of blood, sweat, and tears put into the creation of this book. I can't say it was all fun and games, because it wasn't. I have to say as editor is if you don't like this yearbook, you can do it next year!

Sincerely,

Shannon M. Wood
